CHRIST'S CHURCH FOR ALL PEOPLE

2018

From the Pastor

What does a "healthy" congregation look like in the 21st Century?

We've been circling around that very question for many years at Christ's Lutheran Church, and we've approached that question from a variety of different perspectives.

We focused upon the specific promises we make in our baptismal service during Lent this year and discovered that "healthy" 21st-Century churches continue to be places where: Christians live-well with each other, listen to the Word of God together and share the gift of Holy Communion, proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ through their words and deeds, serve other people as Jesus did, and strive for justice and peace in all the earth.

Our church's vision and mission remind us that a "healthy" 21st-Century church is a place where everybody's welcome, and where people discover "Christ's Church of All People" in our quickly-changing world. "Healthy" congregations are places where people feel both welcomed and embraced (just as they are) with their strengths and weaknesses, quirks and flaws, goodness and love. "Healthy" congregations are places where people feel that they are being listened-to and cared-for by others, and where the people of God worship and pray (on weekend and during the rest of the week). "Healthy" churches are places where people are invited to share their God-given gifts and talents, and where they are equipped and empowered for life in a quickly-changing world.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer once wrote that Christians need be careful because churches can be build upon the likes and dislikes of people who attend them, rather than upon the strong Rock of Jesus Christ. Ignatius of Loyola emphasized the fact that churches need to pull together and "make hay while the sun shines"; because when they start to make decisions in times of fear and panic, they're more likely to make bad choices than good ones. Ministry is pro-active, not reactive. "Healthy" churches will flourish when they are always looking for ways to bring Christ's love into the world and to stand toe-to-toe with things that they know are far from God's plan for the Creation.

I, sometimes, think that we make “being the 21st-Century Church” too hard.

It's not hard to treat each other with respect and dignity - seeing God's presence in each other. It's not hard to spend time in worship and daily prayer - asking God to direct our lives and our ministry as we search for new paths forward. It's not hard to welcome people and accept them as they are - saints and sinners at the same time. It's not hard for us to listen to each other and genuinely care about what's happening in each other's lives. And, it's not hard to live-well with each other in a community where we work as a Team to do God's work - freely sharing our gifts and talents with each other in an atmosphere where other people can share their gifts and talents, too - so that both the joys and burdens of the work that we do is shared by people who, in one way or another, are all called into the life-giving mission and ministry that we fulfill for the sake of Christ.

Summer is a time when many of us try to stop and re-group. But, Summer is also a time when we can look-back at the things that we've done in the last year of our life at Christ's Lutheran Church - and when we can make plans for the Fall, so that we don't "hit the ground" in September flat-footed.

"Healthy" churches are always striving to balance prayer with action - caring for others with being cared-for by others - offering gifts and talents with benefiting from the gifts and talents of other people - giving of the abundance that God pours into our lives with having our deepest needs met by the Savior of the Cross and Empty Tomb.

What does a “healthy” congregation look like in the 21st Century?

We've been circling around that very question for many years at Christ's Lutheran Church, and we have approached that question from a variety of different perspectives. And, now, God's placed many of the answers before us, and it's time to move forward. We have a life-giving message to share. We have a church filled with people who care about each other and who want what's best for each other. We have a Christ who is willing to continue to guide and direct us, and a Holy Spirit that continues to bless us with everything that we need. What else could we need? Perhaps, that's the most important question that we need to be asking ourselves (and each other) right now.

Always yours in Christian love,

~ Pastor Wayne

Are You A Thrivent Member?

I recently sent a letter to all of the Thrivent members (we are aware of) here at Christ's Lutheran Church. If you are a Thrivent member and did NOT get a letter then we would like to hear from.

Thrivent has some really neat programs that can help us raise additional money for our church. It does not require much time or effort, other than just including Thrivent in our ministry. We are losing out because we are not participating and that is unfortunate.

So, if you could just let us know if you are a member of Thrivent, we could include you in our efforts to take advantage of programs that could be of great benefit for all of our members.

Blessing to you all!

Help Needed for New Sound Sundays!

Our New Sound crew is on summer break for June, July and August, but we will be back in September! I want to thank our New Sound members, Brett Andree, Dana Beatty, Rob Beatty, Christina Nicolette, and Barth Tamenne, for a great year of music making! They give freely of their time and talent to provide an alternate musical setting for our worship services eight Sundays of the year.

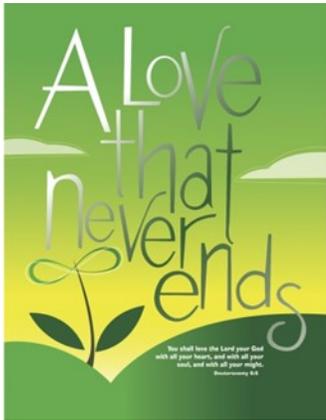

If you enjoy the music, here is how YOU can help!

We are looking for another person to help monitor the soundboard. It's not a difficult job, but it is extremely important for our New Sound Sundays.

If you are willing to try this, it would really make a difference for this ministry of our church. Please think and pray about whether this is a job that you can help with, and let one of the New Sound group know if you are interested and/or have any questions.

With Praise and Thanksgiving!
Nancy Sheehan

" A time to mourn"

Our church is "home" to all of us. We share our faith in worship each week; we "celebrate" church holidays and special events in our lives as a community of believers. It is a joy and a comfort to live and grow together as a church family. Whether we come to church with many family members or attend church as one member, we are all ONE as we gather together regularly. We love and support each other not only as we celebrate the victories in our lives but also during the sad and tragic paths that each of us must endure. When we lose a family member or someone close to us in death, we all need the support and reassurance that we are not alone. The Bible tells us that we are never separated from the love of God. We have been promised this in the Scriptures (Romans 8:38). In addition, our church family is always near to us in prayer and support. Over the years, any of us who have walked this "path" can attest to the comfort felt by the presence of those who care.

When a member or friend passes away, Jesus calls us to comfort those who mourn. Our presence, alone, surrounds others with love and support and the reminder that at such a dark and lonely time, we can lift each other up by simply a word of kindness and a prayerful thought.

Our church is a place where we "take care of each other" and all who enter. Let us remember ALL who mourn with caring and support during a time of grieving and for a long time afterward. It is a time to heal and feel the presence of God, through others who truly care. There is not a better way for our church to grow and prosper.

~ Kathy Schultz

The Shofar

Reading through the entire Bible can be a deeply enriching experience for Christians of every age! God opens our hearts and minds as we explore His Word and the Holy Spirit stirs our hearts as we read and digest Holy Scripture. The Bible, itself, tells us that “the Word of God is living and active” (Hebrews 4:12) and that the words of the Bible judge the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

Perhaps, you’ve tried a “Through the Bible” program that encouraged you to begin to read the Bible in Genesis; but, your progress came to a complete halt when you began working your way through Leviticus. Many people, who enthusiastically begin to read through the Bible, become discouraged when they fall behind – and realize they just don’t have enough time to catch-up with the scheduled readings. I’m hoping that this attempt to guide you through the Bible, over the course of a 52-week period, will be both different and more manageable.

First, I’m going to “take the pressure off” by providing the readings on a weekly basis, so that you don’t become overwhelmed and I’m going to simply encourage you to just keep moving forward. If you miss a day, now and then, don’t worry about it! Just stay focused and read the chapters of the Bible that are being suggested for that day. It’s far better to keep moving forward – even if you miss a reading, now and then – than to tightly chain yourself to a strict routine that you will, most likely, abandon.

Second, I’m going to “take the pressure off” by providing a mixture of readings from very different parts of the Bible. I’m hoping that if you find a particular book of the Bible hard to understand that you’ll just keep moving through the reading knowing that tomorrow’s reading will be from a different part of the Bible. And please, if you’ve just discovered this “Through the Bible” reading program today, don’t think that you need to start by going to the beginning of the list and starting at “Week 1” (although you may want to do that at some point). Just begin moving through the Bible with this week’s suggested readings. Remember: you are reading through the Bible with other faithful Christians who are reading the same part of that Bible that you are each day!

And third, I’m going to “take the pressure off” by encouraging you to create a routine that will help you to set-aside time to read God’s Word each day (if you don’t already have a regularly, scheduled time for daily Bible reading and prayer) realizing that most of us can create new “habits” by doing something, each day, for 21 days. Just imagine, in just three short weeks, you’ll develop a routine where reading God’s Word becomes a part of every single day!

Your Body Is a Temple

One of the great mysteries of our culture can be found in our obsession with physical fitness. The mystery isn't that people are exercising more. The mystery is that we're in worse shape than ever.

With the proliferation of fitness clubs, the emphasis on eating healthy foods, and the presence of late-night cable shows dedicated to the latest home exercise apparatus, we should be the fittest people on the planet. Unfortunately, has never gotten anybody in shape.

The sad truth is that we are gaining weight at an alarming rate, our children are in terrible shape, and even our professional athletes get beaten by athletes from other countries in any sport we didn't first invent.

What's the problem? We think it has to do with intention and attention. You probably have every intention of getting fit, but you don't. You say you're going to pay attention to the details of diet and exercise, but you don't. When you put those two failures together, they spell "out of shape." And out of shape usually leads to all kinds of disadvantages, such as shortness of breath, sleepiness, lack of endurance, and obesity, none of which will add years or quality to your life.

Just like every other area of your life, the secret to getting and staying healthy lies in the details. Change won't happen overnight. It takes time as a multitude of small disciplines are repeated daily. The process may be tedious, but the results are well worth the effort. Not only will you feel better, but you'll think better, too! A sound body can enhance a sound mind.

We may be spiritual creatures at heart, but while we're on earth our spirits are being housed in our physical bodies. Let's do everything we can to keep the house in top shape.

...In The Small Stuff

- Fitness of the soul should take priority over fitness of the body, but the two are not mutually exclusive.
- Physical fitness should be a discipline, not an obsession.
- Consistency works better when it's linked to persistency.
- Keep in shape.
- Focus on where you are going rather than where you are.
- It's never too late to make a change in your life.
- You usually lose interest in something that's out of focus.
- If you start your day with the expectation that nothing meaningful will occur, you won't be disappointed.
- Don't run with the ball unless you know the direction of the goal.
- Your biggest success will be in striving to be the best you can be, and only you can succeed at that.

Taken from "God is in The Small Stuff" by Authors Bruce & Stan

We are starting a monthly collection of items for Operation Christmas Child. Wait...Christmas? Yes, Christmas! If you are not familiar with Operation Christmas Child, it is a project of Samaritan's Purse, and is the world's largest Christmas outreach of its kind. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has delivered gift-filled shoeboxes to over 124 million children affected by war, poverty, natural disasters, and other crises in more than 150 countries and territories. Each month, we will be collecting specific items that can be placed in the collection bins in the lobby of the church. Our collection schedule is:

June - washcloths and bar soap

July - toothbrushes and toothpaste

August - small balls all kinds for boys and girls and decks of playing cards (regular, Old Maid)

September - hairbrushes, combs, hair ties

October - snack foods: raisins, nuts, gum, hard candies

November - put boxes together and drop off at collection site!

Each box is a true blessing to the child receiving it. Help us make a bigger impact this year!
